

The progress of a single surrogate-query step

One episode consists of 40 sequential surrogate queries. The sequence represents repeated black-box queries rather than physical-time evolution.